Term of License: 5 years from Publication date

THIS AGREEMENT IS SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

1. The Applicant's permission will automatically expire at the end of the stated term of license. The Applicant must re-apply for subsequent terms; however, the Applicant may sell off any existing stock that has been printed prior to the expiration of the Agreement.

2. This permission is non-exclusive, non-transferable, and limited solely to the language(s) and territories granted herein, and to the Format(s) /Edition(s) of the Work noted above, not to exceed the total quantity specified above. This may include institution-, national-, and province- specific editions to fulfill curriculum requirements, provided such editions remain within these stated parameters. The Applicant must re-apply for all other custom editions, revisions, subsequent editions, and all other print and electronic formats not specified above [and for any additional copies beyond the permitted total quantity]; payment on a basis satisfactory to the Grantor will be assessed.
3. The Applicant shall run the Credit Line(s) specified above, in every copy on the copyright page or acknowledgments page, or as a footnote on the page on which the quotation begins. Additionally, the following notice [or similar statement] must appear after each credit line or once on the copyright page or in the acknowledgments section of the Applicant's Work: "Any third party use of this material, outside of this publication, is prohibited. Interested parties must apply directly to Penguin Random House Canada Limited for permission."
4. With regard to the electronic format(s) granted herein, this permission extends only to on-screen use of the Selection as submitted. The addition of sound, images or graphics by the Applicant or User is not permitted without the Grantor's prior written consent. For the avoidance of doubt, individual words within the Selection may be clickable to access a definition and/or annotation. Users of the Applicant's publication may also highlight, underline, and add User's own notes to Selection.
5. The Applicant shall not without the prior written consent of the Grantor (a) alter the Selection in any manner, including but not limited to making deletions from, additions to, or changes in the text or illustrations of the Selection, or (b) combine the Selection with any illustration, image, or caption.
6. The permission granted herein does not apply to quotations from other sources which may have been incorporated in the Selection. Any such necessary permission must be obtained directly from the original source.
7. The title of any licensed Selection shall not be used in the title of the Applicant's book or appear on the Applicant's book jacket. Nor shall the name of the Grantor's author appear on the Applicant's book jacket unless the names of all other contributors are also listed. If all contributors are listed, the Grantor's author's name may not be given greater prominence than any other author or contributor associated with the Applicant's work. In addition, use of either the Selection or the name of the Grantor's author in any advertising and/or promotion is expressly prohibited.
8. This permission shall permit without charge the sub-licensing of the rights to publish/record/transmit special formats of the Applicant's edition for the visually handicapped and/or physically- or learning-disabled, provided such formats are neither sold nor rented for a fee.
9. One copy of the Applicant's Work shall be sent to Penguin Random House Canada Limited, to the attention of the Permissions Department, promptly upon first publication. It is understood and agreed that the Grantor will not request more than one copy of the Work for each author or artist whose work is licensed to the Applicant under the terms of this Agreement.
10. This Agreement shall terminate without notice if the proposed Work is not published within two (2) years of the date of this Agreement, or, if published, the Work remains out-of-print for a period of six months. Additionally, this permission shall terminate if any of the terms of this Agreement are violated including failure to pay the specified permission fee or failure to include the copyright and permissions acknowledgment.
11. Regardless of the place of its actual execution and performance, this Agreement shall be treated as though executed within the Province of Ontario and shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario and federal laws of Canada. Any action or proceeding regarding this Agreement or the Work shall be brought solely in a court of competent jurisdiction sitting in the City of Toronto.
12. This Agreement constitutes the full understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersedes all prior negotiation, agreements and understandings with respect thereto. This Agreement may only be amended by a written document executed by all parties. Any unilateral change to this contract is not valid. Contact the Permissions Department for any desired revisions.
13. Please remit payment and one (1) countersigned copy of this Agreement to the undersigned. Payment must be made within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement to avoid cancellation of this offer. All fees must be made payable to Penguin Random House Canada Limited (use HST# 104397799). Please note that we do not accept credit cards;
