

Emerson College and the Museum of Science, Boston

present

The Third Annual Student Film Screening and Discussion

6:30-9 p.m. Friday October 8, 2010

Cahners Theater - the Museum of Science, Boston

Documentaries, Live Performance and Reading by Emerson Students

Swine Flu Chant

Music for violin, based on the genetic sequence of the H1N1 influenza virus

Composed and played by Lilit Hartunian

I Come Undone

A poem about the movement of DNA during cell division

Written and read by Jordan Koluch

Sweet Spots

A funny, but sobering, introspective detective story that shows it's not easy to avoid high fructose corn syrup in our food, our bodies

Documentary by Kendra Marshall

Hull Wind

Hull, Massachusetts learns the pros and cons of greening municipal energy with wind turbine power

Documentary by Andrew Vella

A Convenience Store Crisis

It's hard to find healthy food in convenience stores, but in Roxbury and Dorchester, community organizations take the challenge – and grow their own

Documentary by Heather Settles

Secrets of the Mud: The Hemlock Mystery

Why did all the hemlock trees in eastern North America die 5500 years ago? It's an ecological mystery that has implications for the present day

Documentary by Allison Gillette

---

Screenings and performances will be followed by a panel discussion with our audience

The program will be introduced and moderated by Emerson College faculty

Bob Nesson, Wyatt Oswald, and Amy Vashlishan Murray